Stay still.

The summer hustle leaves us itching to slink into a new routine and move at a slower pace. One sans the constant peer pressure to make the most of every sunny moment. Here you'll find a bevy of solid reasons to mosey inside. Rich colors, feel-good fabrics and the kind of thoughtful designs you can only find from a place that makes their own. We spent the better part of the year handcrafting everything you need to feel at home and reconnect with your people, your pets and your desire to do nearly nothing.

Our new Past Life Chair is made from molded PET felt, an eco-friendly synthetic material created from post-consumer recycled water and soda bottles. It's revered for its strength, durability and lightweight nature. We love it because we can form it into various shapes—and it's fully recyclable after use. Look for it in our Basis Panels, Olly Storage Baskets and, of course, Past Life.

Past Life Chair Shown in light grey/black, copper/black, olive/silver and cobalt/black: $350 each

Art has a way of bringing out the joy in all of us. This notion was immediately felt when we discovered the wonderful work of three nonprofit studios and the artists with intellectual and developmental disabilities whom they support. We were so moved by each of them, we felt we had to share their talents and play a small role in supporting their art. It's our honor to bring you the ART MODE COLLECTION—work from incredible IDD artists who embody the power of art. All profits support the artists and studios.
